DIED SUDDENLY
OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

VICTIM OF LOVE SYNDICATE.

Mrs. Bina F. Verrault, of so-called "Love Syndicate" fame, emerged from the obscurity which has enshrouded her ever since her arrest, about three months ago, and appeared for examination before United States Commissioner Shields in New York yesterday. The charge against her was using the mails in a matrimonial scheme with intent to defraud Leo Kiesler, a prosperous Hungarian-American, connected with the foreign department of the Mutual Life Insurance Company. Another case against Mrs. Verrault, based on the complaint of James McClellan, the Philadelphia grocer, comes up for examination Saturday. The third complaint, alleging use of the mails with intent to defraud, that of Gregory Zalinoff, a Fifth avenue New York delicatessen dealer, has been dropped. There are besides at least one charge of grand larceny in obtaining the furnishings of the "Love Syndicate" house, at 323 west Eighty-third street, New York, pending in the police courts against Mrs. Verrault and Mrs. Sarah M. Brown, Mrs. Verrault's friend and companion.

The charge urged against the woman yesterday is that she fraudulently obtained about $2,000 in money and jewels from Kiesler by means of letters and other communications in which she promised to marry him.

Kiesler, who is a big, fine-looking chap, was on the stand throughout the examination yesterday, and told all about his experience with Mrs. Verrault. On October 22, 1905, he said, he inserted this personal in a morning newspaper:

"A gentleman 35, permanent income, desires acquaintance with a young lady of means, object matrimony. Strict investigation expected and desired.

"HONEST."

"The next day," said Kiesler, "I received an answer to the ad. signed Miss Florence Montgomery, and inviting me to call at 114 west Seventy-third street, New York. I went there the next evening and found the woman who I afterward learned was Mrs. Verrault, the defendant. She afterward told me her real name was Mrs. Helen Hamilton, a widow; this was before she moved to the west Eighty-third street house.

"I was very much pleased with her in every way, I was not after her money. My wishes were to make a good marriage with a nice woman, and from what I could learn she was just the sort. Well, she kept me coming along. I took her to dinner at the Waldorf. She asked me for money to buy an engagement ring; I gave it to her. She asked me for $200 to buy a turquoise locket she liked; I gave it to her—afterwards learning that McClellan had given up $200 to buy the same locket. In all I gave her, mostly at her request, about $2,000, most of which I had borrowed from my sister to give her. In January she went away, she said, to look after her large properties in Kentucky. I wrote her many letters, getting more and more unsatisfactory replies. I asked for the return of my money. She refused to give it, and in May, 1906, she wrote me a defiant letter of good-by. This is the first time I've seen her since then."

Russian Cruisers Sunk?

According to advices by the steamer Empress of China, which arrived at Victoria, B. C., yesterday afternoon, a telegram to Japanese newspapers from Vladivostok reports great excitement occasioned there by the report that the converted Russian cruisers Sitka and Kelima, which have been doing patrol duty at the seal rookeries off Copper Island, were sunk by a Japanese destroyer in the neighborhood of the seal islands.

No confirmation of the Victoria report that two Russian converted cruisers had been sunk by a Japanese destroyer in the neighborhood of the seal islands can be had at the State Department or the Russian and Japanese Embassies in Washington. Unofficial reports are to the effect that there has been friction between the Russian guards patroling the seal rookeries in the neighborhood of Copper Island and Japanese seal poachers similar to the friction which has arisen in the case of our own seal islands, and the officials would not be surprised if bloodshed resulted off Copper Island as in the case of the Pribilov Islands.

One report was that the crew of a Japanese sealing vessel had attacked the Russian shore patrol, firing repeatedly at the blockhouse in which the latter sought refuge. In return the Russian cruisers have captured several Japanese sealing vessels and hard feeling has resulted, because the Japanese claim that they were unlawfully seized outside of the three-mile limit, and the fishermen have called upon their own government for protection.

So the situation is regarded as one that might readily become critical in case a Japanese warship should fall in with a Russian cruiser carrying off a prize of this kind.

Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. Mysterious Murder.

Josiah Dale was murdered Monday night on the public road between Bellefonte, Pa., and Center Hall. Early Monday morning he left his home, at Center Hall, and went to his farm, on the top of Nittany Mountain, where he husked corn all day in the field. About 6 o'clock in the evening he left the farm in a buggy to go home, which was only two miles distant. This was the last seen of him alive. When he failed to return at the usual time his wife became worried and called her neighbor, ex-sheriff Cyrus Brungart, and told him that she was afraid something had happened to her husband.

The sheriff, with a number of citizens, went in search of Mr. Dale, and just as they got to the barn the faithful horse was seen coming down the road toward them. The searchers at once saw the body of Dale hanging over the dashboard. The man was dead, but the body was still warm.

It is thought that the horse walked over a mile and a half down the steep mountain while Dale was struggling in the agony of death. Before removing the body from the buggy a light was procured and an examination made, which showed that the farmer had been shot in the back, just below the left shoulder blade. There is no clue to the murderer.

THE DINING-ROOM

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 14, 1906.

As was stated several days ago, the people of Washington are losing patience with the many indolent and improvident negroes which have infested that city since Abraham Lincoln issued the emancipation proclamation. Maj. George A. Armes suggests a plan for ridding the District of Columbia of negroes who refuse to work. He has found the presence and proximity of these idle ones unpleasant—in more ways than one—and he is anxious to have the District Commissioners do something about it. The outline of the Major's plan is as follows:

Have the police of the District of Columbia stop and take the name, address and occupation of each idle negro. Place the names on the register at police headquarters and let it be known that any one who wants help of any kind may call there. If any one refuses to accept work let him be required to leave the District within ten days or be sent to the workhouse. After a negro is stopped the second time and still not employed let him be given ten days to find work or leave the city, or go to the workhouse for ninety days or six months. Hundreds of families are anxious to employ help and pay fair wages, but many of the negroes are becoming worthless. They prefer to loaf and steal rather than earn an honest living. The good class ought to assist in getting rid of the worthless, for the good and welfare of their own race. Something should be done, and that soon.

TROUBLE seems to be brewing for the South Carolina immigration authorities who were recently instrumental in bringing in a shipload of Europeans to the port of Charleston. The United States immigration bureau has received complaints alleging that these aliens were brought to this country in violation of the contract labor law. The solicitor of the Department of Commerce and Labor has been instructed to make an investigation. The raising of a question as to the legality of inducing immigration to South Carolina may, and it is probable that it was intended to, throw a damper over the whole project of diverting immigration to southern ports, which has been taken up recently by a number of States. Organizations in the northern and western States have for years had agents in Europe sending immigrants to those States and these immigrants have been arriving at New York and other northern ports by the hundreds of thousands without let or hindrance, but just as soon as there is a prospect of diverting immigration to the South then objection is raised!

THE BANK of France gives notice that its refusal to discount American bills must not be regarded as directed particularly against the United States. The rule applies to all foreign bills to which less than two French signatures are attached. It is pointed out that the measure was designed to protect the French market, where money is at 3 per cent., against the demands of foreign markets, where the rate is 5 to 7 per cent. In other words, the conservative financiers who manage the Bank of France refuse to imperil the stability and solidity of the industrial interests of their country by ministering to and further advancing speculative activity elsewhere. In this they set a pattern worthy the emulation of the financial world.

IT IS now said that tariff revision immediately following the presidential election in 1908 is the republican programme and that there will be no extra session of the Sixtieth Congress. The President, whatever he may have thought of revision of the tariff twelve months ago, does not now it is reported, think it would be wise to agitate this matter at a session of Congress on the eve of a presidential campaign. This argument has been going on for the past dozen years and tariff revision is no nearer now than then.

THE democratic majority in New Jersey on the total popular vote for the first time in many years is causing the republicans of the State much misgiving as to a new term for Senator Dryden. But has not Dryden, like Simon Guggenheim, of the smelting trust in Colorado, liberally expended his money to get his adherents into seats in the New Jersey legislature? Why, then, asks the Philadelphia Record, should not he be rewarded with the best fruit of the victory?

"AS THINGS stand now it looks very much like a democratic victory in the next campaign," said former Governor Odell, of New York, yesterday after looking over the political situation. He says the recent campaign was badly managed and ill advised and thinks the President's interference and Secretary Root's speech rather helped the democrats. His opinion is shared by many others.

THE PLURALITY of Governor Hoch, of Kansas, has dwindled to 2,060 votes, against a plurality of 67,000 votes in 1904. In Kansas, as in nearly every other State, the prestige of the republican party appears to be rapidly declining.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Just what shall be the amount of the tax banks desiring to increase their currency should pay into the fund which is to be under government control, is the most important of the questions to be settled today by the currency commission of the American Bankers' Association, which began its third day's session this morning. It is believed by most members that by tomorrow noon the commission will have decided upon a plan to submit to Congress for a correction of the currency system, providing greater elasticity. It has been suggested to the commission that all national banks in reserve cities—there being more than forty such cities in the United States, that meet the necessary requirements—are to be permitted to issue such emergency notes in an amount equal to 50 per cent of their capitalization, provided their government bond secured circulation is equivalent to at least one half of their capital.

The basis of this tax will be about five per cent of their issue, if present plans are adopted. This is to constitute a guarantee fund for the protection of all such bank notes in circulation. Another suggestion is that the desired elasticity may be obtained on a sliding scale of taxation; that a bank with $2,000,000 capital could put out an issue of $1,000,000 emergency currency and would be taxed at the rate of 3 per cent per annum on the first $250,000 of its issue; 4 per cent on the next issue of the same amount; 5 per cent on the third issue and 6 per cent on the last $250,000. It is figured that the capitalization of the national banks in reserve cities is sufficient to bring a volume in excess of $150,000,000 of new money into circulation. This fund, it is likely, will be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the United States.

The Interstate Commerce Commission declines to make an order requiring railroads to report all cases of false billing. The request was made by Larkin & Co., of Buffalo. This company charged that while it correctly billed all of its shipments others, to get lower rates, falsely bill their goods. Larkin & Co. claims that this works to their disadvantage. The commission declines to make the order because it is convinced that it would be ineffectual in its practical operation.

Bids were opened today at the Navy Department for six, seven, eight and twelve-inch armor piercing steel projectiles. There were three bidders. The Bethlehem Steel Co's bids ranged from $43.25 for the six-inch shells to $328 for the 12-inch shells. The Midvale Co. bid from $41 for the six-inch to $346.70 for the 12-inch. The third bidder was the Firth-Stirling Steel Co. which has just established a big plant at Giesboro Point, outside the city limits of Washington. Their bids ranged from $25 for the six-inch shells to $190 for the 12-inch.

President Roosevelt with his party on board the battleship Louisiana are expected to be within reach of the wireless station today but so far no word has been received from him since yesterday. It is possible for the Louisiana to reach Colon tonight.

The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a call for reports of the condition of national banks at the close of business on Monday November 12.

The international complication which has arisen in New York through the effort of a policeman to arrest the French Consul General, M. Ebray, on the charge of having insulted Mrs. Nunziata, his charwoman, has not yet reached the State Department and the chances are that it will not. According to the facts alleged, Mrs. Nunziata was cleaning up the offices of the Consulate General on Saturday afternoon when Consul General Ebray locked the outside door and she had to appeal to him for the key. While she does not allege that the French official laid hands upon her or attempted to maltreat her, she claimed that the locking of the outside door savored of evil intent and she felt insulted. She complained to a policeman, who went with her to the office and attempted to put the Consul General under arrest. There was where they made a mistake. But while the offices of Consuls of France are invincible and may not be invaded by local policemen, the persons of Consul-General are subject to the laws of this country when they are charged with crime. The treaty affords them "personal immunity except in the case of crime." Consequently if Mrs. Nunziate believes that she can substantiate a criminal charge against Consul General Ebray she can hale him to court and find her remedy there.

The national wealth of the United States increase from $88,528,348,798 in 1900 to $106,881,415,009, according to a bulletin of the Census Bureau issued this afternoon. The increase in the past 14 years has been 64.8 per cent. The figures include the value of all real and personal property, public utilities, mines, merchandise, manufactures, etc.

Kaiser Attacked.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—In one of the most dramatic sessions the German Reichstag has seen in recent years the Kaiser and his policies were today ruthlessly attacked and nobly defended. Herr Bassermann, the national liberal leader, was the instigator of the attack on his majesty. With the chamber ringing with the cheers of the throng that packed the galleries and lauded Bassermann's words, Prince von Buelow, the Chancellor, threw himself into the breach in defense of the Kaiser.

Bassermann had electrified the large audience by mercilessly attacking the foreign policy of Germany, which, he declared, has been a complete failure. He contrasted Germany's meagre accomplishments with the brilliant success of the English policy. England, he said, has gained new allies and established her predominance, while Germany is isolated and surrounded by enemies. Emperor William is controlling German policy single handed. It is undesirable to entrust the destinies to an absolute ruler. His speech was liberally applauded.

Prince von Buelow in a great speech defended the Kaiser. He went into elaborate details to justify the governments course, denied Germany's isolation, or that her policy had not met with such success.

Rockefeller Indicted.

Findlay, O., Nov. 14.—John D. Rockefeller several directors and an alleged subsidy company of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, were secretly indicted today by the grand jury of Hancock county. The charge is a violation of the Valentine anti-trust law.

King Edward yesterday invested King Haakon with the Order of the Garter; the ceremony of investiture was the most brilliant pageant of King Edward's reign.

News of the Day.

Harry K. Thaw will be tried in New York for the murder of Stanford White on Monday, December 3.

Representative L. F. Livingston, of Georgia, in an interview, says he believes currency legislation is more important than tariff revision at this time.

A proposed act for uniform divorce regulation was submitted to the divorce congress in Philadelphia. Full publicity is advocated and the committee believes public hearings beneficial.

"God sends good women," said Sir Thomas Lipton, Irish knight and cup challenger, in Philadelphia, last night. "So why should a poor man be so presumptuous as to hunt one." Sir Thomas said this in answer to the report that he was in this country searching for a bride.

An important question has been referred to the Solicitor of the Department of Commerce and Labor for an opinion, and his decision in the premises will be of more than ordinary interest to many southern states which have been actively encouraging the immigration of desirable persons from European countries.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has dismissed Gen. George W. Mindil, who has been for many years the chief examiner of precious stones in the New York appraiser's store. The action is the outcome of an investigation ordered several weeks ago to determine the responsibility for extensive undervaluations of diamonds and other gems at the port of New York.

Executive officers of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad were asked yesterday about a report that a complaint has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission protesting that various southern railroads have the advantage by a part-water haul from northern points, and petitioning the commission that they be prohibited from reducing their freight rates under the direct all-rail rates. They characterized it as ridiculous.

The proposition to issue a bank circulation upon approved securities other than United States bonds was rejected yesterday by a vote of the currency commission of the American Bankers' Association, now holding sessions in Washington. This action practically sounds the death knell of a plan for relieving currency stringency which has had many advocates among the financiers of the country for the past ten years.

Frank Dalnour, engineer of the first section of the immigrant train which figured in the wreck at Woodville, Ind., admits that his carelessness was responsible for the catastrophe. On passing the freight train which was standing on a siding at McCool, he whistled three times to inform the freight that a second passenger train was following as section No. 2. He received no reply, but did not stop to ascertain why his signal had not been acknowledged. "That's where I made my mistake," said Dalnour.

Former Governor Odell, of New York, ex-chairman of the State republican committee, said yesterday that the management of the republican State campaign was the "most asinine" that he ever knew, and the interference of Mr. Roosevelt did more harm than good. The whole State ticket, he said, might just as well have been elected. As the result stands it looks like a democratic victory, and leaves the republican party in bad shape with a national campaign coming on. The republicans, he declared, made no campaign at all, but put it all on Mr. Hughes' shoulders.

Rev. H. Covington, of Sumter, S. C., has been called to the rectorate St. Paul's Episcopal Church, of Norfolk to succeed Dr. B. D. Tucker, now Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Virginia.

Judge A. K. Leake, a prominent lawyer of Goochland county, was stricken with paralysis while arguing a case in the court room yesterday at Louisa. The attending physician reports the judge's condition as favorable to recovery.

Jas. B. Wilcher, who attempted to kill his 16-year-old wife in Richmond, Monday night by cutting her throat with a razor, was arrested yesterday and lodged in jail, pending the recovery or death of the young woman, who has little chance of recovery. Wilcher admitted the crime, but would say nothing of the circumstances leading up to it.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Felix W. Allen, of Harrisonburg, nozzle for leaching-vats; Frank P. Bowman, of Bridgewater, harrow; John Cabill, of Norfolk, rolling or flexible shutter; Charles H. Davis, of Petersburg, interest-bearing instrument of obligation; Patrick Foy, of Roanoke, clothes-drier; Robert T. Gunn, of Norfolk, making potable and aerated water; John L. Ritter, of Shenandoah, egg-tester.

Despondency, brought on by nervousness, caused G. Bedford Hackett, jr., to committ suicide by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun at his home in Newport News. The young man's aged mother and father were in the house when the fatal shot was fired, and they rushed to their son's room, where they found him on the floor, one side of his head gone, the walls and ceiling spattered with blood gushing from the wound in his head. A shotgun was between his legs, and at his side was a strip of wood that had been torn from a window frame. It is supposed that the young man used the strip of wood to pull the trigger, and that he was looking down the barrel of the gun when the shot was discharged.

Countess Castellane Granted Divorce.

Paris, Nov. 14.—By the decision today in the court of first instance Countess Anna Gould de Castellane is freed of her little "noble" husband, purchased at the expense of heavy inroads on her fortune, only to suffer insults and brutalities at his hands. A decree of divorce from Count Boni will be granted the the American wife and she will be given the custody of her three children.

Practically all Countess Anna's contentions before the court are upheld. Without demanding an inquiry, the court granted a divorce on the proofs of infidelity and brutality presented in the documentary evidence. Boni's letters, so hurtful to his wife's self-respect, assisted materially in influencing the judges.

While given the custody of the children, George, Boni and Jay, Countess Anna is forbidden to take them to the United States without permission from the court. Boni is to be allowed to see them twice each week at his mother's home and will have them for a week during the winter holidays and at Easter, as well as for a month every summer.

Castellane has not only been denied any alimony allowance, but in addition had been assessed for the cost of the proceedings.

The possibility of Countess Anna's remarriage is not touched in the court's decision, and the general interpretation is that she will be free to wed again should she choose.

The following are the principal facts in the case:

Engagement announced February 6, 1895, at house party on Long Island. Marriage May 4, 1895, and left three days later for Paris. Anna's fortune estimated at $17,000,000, giving her an income of $2,000,000. Entertained lavishly and Boni dissipated wife's fortune in wild living and buying costly art treasures. In 1900 Gould family forced a settlement and George Gould was appointed trustee of Anna's estate. Allowance of $200,000 a year made to Anna. Castellane's debts then amounted to $4,400,000, while they had spent $8,000,000 in four years. Three children were born. Boni's attentions to other women and brutality to his wife, led to frequent quarrels. Anna left Boni about January 25, 1906, and brought suit for separation February 1. Anna and Boni refused reconciliation before court. Anna changed suit for divorce. Hearing set for March 31, but eventually postponed until after French elections in which Boni was a candidate for Chamber of Deputies. Divorce hearing began October 31. Anna's counsel revealed beating of wife by Boni in quarrels over money, and cited numerous instances of infidelity with women of title and position, down to demi-mondaines. Hearing resumed November 7, Boni's attorney denying the charges, pleading for forgiveness and demanding inquiry to prove charges. Verdict in favor of Anna rendered November 14.

Captain Hammond and men of steamer Advance:

Heartiest thanks for your congratulations on both counts.

The Boer Outbreak.

Capetown, South Africa, Nov. 14.—The outbreak of Boers in Cape Colony became more serious today when two bands of raiders made their appearance in the northwestern part of the colony. They are moving in different directions and are doing their utmost to stir up dissatisfaction among the settlers. They are reported to have secured many recruits.

Police who are pursuing the band under Farreira overtook the raiders near Upington. A brief, indecisive fight took place, but Ferreira escaped.

All the bands are telling settlers that a general uprising is to occur and from various sections of the colony signs of restlessness are reported among Boers.

Stewart M. Brice Married.

New York, Nov. 14.—Club circles in which he was prominent have found a lot to talk about today in the marriage of Stewart M. Brice, son of former Senator Calvin S. Brice, last night, to Mrs. Catherine Whitton Mount, of Indianapolis. Mr. Brice was regarded as a confirmed bachelor and his marriage caused a great surprise. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Julia R. Kelsey by the Rev. Henry Marsh Warren. Mrs. Kelsey acted as matron of honor and William Carpenter Camp was "best man." Mr. and Mrs. Brice have known each other for years, having been friends before Mrs. Brice's first marriage fifteen years ago. They met frequently in Washington. Following the ceremony a dinner was given at Delmonico's.

Alleged Attempts to Bribe.

Findlay, O., Nov. 14.—A $500 bribe for a disagreement of the Hancock county petit jury which tried and convicted the Standard Oil Company, of criminal conspiracy was twice offered C. O. Myers, one of the jurors, during the trial of the case. The first offer was made to Myers in the street in the very shadow of the court house in which the Standard Oil case was being tried. This was in the shape of a direct proposition to pay $500 for a disagreement. The second offer was more direct, it was made in the basement of the court house when some man, at present unidentified, showed the juror a big roll of bills and tendered them to him. Both offers were made by the same man and both were declined.

Trains Collide.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 14.—A special received here says that two special trains carrying marines collided at Kamloops, British Columbia. It was first reported that seven were dead. A later dispatch says one man is dead and six probably fatally injured.

Slump in Standard Oil Stock.

New York, Nov. 14.—Attacked by the federal government the market value of Standard Oil has shrunk within the year $125,000,000. The stock sold today at the lowest point reached in years. The slump has caused John D. Rockefeller's money pile to wither $65,000,000. Wall street fears the effort of the government to break up the oil trust will cause 26 Broadway to hammer all stocks to show the administration that the oil trust has depressed business. Four years ago Standard oil sold for $700 a share, and today it sold on the curb for $675. With a capitalization of $100,000,000 the market value of the company has slumped $265,000,000. Today there appeared to be little support to the stock. Small holders were selling, fearing that the government would deal the trust a body blow and cause its dissolution. Special attorneys Kellogg and Morrison of the Department of Justice are en route from Washington to St. Louis. Within 48 hours they will file a petition for a permanent injunction against the big oil trust. A special grand jury will doubtless act favorably on the petition, and the fight between the United Strtes government and the Standard Oil will be on.

The Thaw Case.

New York Nov. 14.—Positive announcement was made in District Attorney Jerome's office today that the trial of Henry K. Thaw will begin on December 3. The hearing will be before Recorder Goff, in part 1, of the Court of General Session.

Mr. Jerome will try the case personally. He will confine himself to proving premeditation by showing Thaw had bought the revolver two years before he killed Stanford White and had frequently threatened the latter, and to the stories of eye witnesses of the shooting.

Mr. Jerome will make every effort to keep extraneous matter relating to White's method of living from creeping into the case.

The Thaw case will be easily finished within a month.

Disorderly Students.

Boston, Nov. 14.—Six Harvard students, were arranged in court today charged with drunkenness, disturbing the peace, and malicious mischief as a result of one of the liveliest student rows the police of Boston ever tackled. The fracas occurred in the cafe of the Hotel Lexington about midnight. A party of 19 young men became involved in a dispute with the cashier and a waited and a fight started. Two policemen called in to quell the melee were quickly subdued and rescued later half choked to death. Reinforcements became too much for the students, and making a flying wedge thirteen of them escaped. The remaining six were arrested. All gave fictitious names.

Emigration Causes Anxiety.

Buda-Pesth, Hungary, Nov. 14.—Emigration to the United States is making such inroads on the young manhood of Hungary that the government is seriously considering taking strong action limiting trans-Atlantic traffic. An international congress to discuss the emigration regulations would be welcomed by Hungary. Hungary's position was illustrated today when the Minister of the Interior, replying to a question in Parliament, said: "Our country is bleeding to death through American emigration. Last year 155,000 Hungarians crossed the Atlantic. We are not able to stand this drain upon our young manhood."

Attempt to Assassinate a Captain.

Kiel, Germany, Nov. 14.—A mysterious attempt was made early today to assassinate Captain Buckman, formerly of New York, who is now an officer in the Turkish navy. Captain Buckman came here to take command of the new Turkish warship Assaritewfik. While returning from a banquet he was attacked by five men with daggers. Captain Buckman is an expert boxer, and he was able to fight off his assailants until help arrived, sustaining only a few slight wounds. It is believed the assassins were employed by the Young Turk party which is anxious to kill the American for his part in rejuvenating the Sultan's navy.

Marie Sulzer Banished.

London, Nov. 14.—Banishment for Marie Sulzer, the concert hall singer, whose charms have captivated Prince Joachim of Prussia, who says he will marry her, has been added to the prince's exile. This is the story sent here from Berlin. By marrying Baron von Lichenberg, to get a title, Marie made herself an Austrian subject. She has now been informed that she is an undesirable alien. If she does not take the hint she will be expelled by the police. Prince Joachim has been ordered to German South West Africa to serve in the colonial army.

Mistaken In Gender.

Denver, Col., Nov. 14.—Because its a girl, General Sherman Bell has been in a blue funk for a month. His friends have noted it, but not until today did the facts become known. A month ago while General Bell was at Cripple Creek he received a message that he had become a father. He promptly wired President Roosevelt, his former colonel, that Theodore Roosevelt Bell had reported for duty. When General Bell got home to look over the new arrival he was thunderstruck to find that the baby was a girl.

Investigation Ordered.

Havana, Nov. 14.—Governor Magoon has ordered an investigation of a scandal developed through the appointment of a new chief of the army claims bureau of the Treasury Department. Indications are that thousands of soldiers claims, supposedly paid by the government, do not appear on the books. The illegal payments reported to be concealed, will amount to an enormous sum.

Receivers Applied For.

New York, Nov. 14.—Supreme Court Justice Dowling today was asked to appoint a receiver for the partnership of Delmonico's two restaurants, pending a suit brought by Albert Phierlet, executor of the estate of Rose Delmonico, and Lorenzo Christ Delmonico against Josephine Christ Delmonico who is their partner in the business.

City Council.

Although the session of the City Council last night was comparatively brief, an average volume of business was transacted.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A full board was present, and the business presented was transacted without debate. Some questions were propounded by members when certain papers were read, which brought forth satisfactory answers, and the votes on the different measures which came up were unanimous.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board came to order shortly before 8 o'clock, and after the minutes of the last two meetings had been read, the committee on streets made a report as to the grade of the curb from Wolfe street to Wilkes, on Columbus, and an ordinance therefore was unanimously adopted—12 votes.

Application by Messrs. Atcheson & Bro. for leave to put a frame structure on Union street near Duke was granted.

The Fire Wardens recommended that the compensation of the keeper of the reserve engine be transferred from Mr. Bontz, of the Reliance, to Mr. Smith, of the Columbia Company, and the board agreed.

Chas. A. Speice's request that a cobble gutter be made at Fairfax and Jefferson streets was refetred.

S. J. Simpson's request for action as to a gutter on Wilkes street near Henry was referred. Mr. Evans thought that the U. S. government should care for this improvement.

A communication, signed by Capt. P. J. Murphy and Lieut. Windsor Demaine, of the Alexandria Light Infantry, asking that $800 be appropriated to assist in defraying the expenses of laying a new floor in Armory Hall, was referred to the finance committee. It was stated that with the completion of the improvements now under way at the armory the company will be self-supporting.

$150 was appropriated to build a roof over the tool yard at the jail. And $150 for a drain pipe on Wilkes street between Fairfax and Royal.

A resolution appropriating $275 to resurface north Patrick street was referred.

A resolution that the committee on public property remove the houses on the lot east of the jail was referred, as was an appropriation of $1,200 for improvements on Commerce street from Prince to Duke street.

Council adopted the adverse report of the finance committee on the ordinance providing that $500 be set apart as a contingent fund for the use of the mayor and the police department. This had been introduced as a substitute for the resolution appropriating a similar sum as a reward for the capture of the murderer.

An invitation, signed by Superintendent K. Kemper, of the city schools to the members of Council to attend a meeting to be held in Lannon's Opera House on Wednesday evening, November 21, in the interest of the local schools, was accepted. It was stated that the meeting is to be conducted under the auspices of the State board of education and is to be addressed by prominent educators.

The resignation of Gardner L. Boothe as a representative of the Third ward was received and accepted with regret. The selection of his successor was deferred till the next meeting. Mr. Boothe announced he had moved into the Fourth ward and is no longer eligible to represent the Third ward.

When the action of the Aldermen declining to make an appropriation in aid of the family of the late C. T. Smith, who was recently murdered, came in from the upper board,

Mr. Birrell urged that as appropriations outside the laws had been made he hoped that the equity of the case would be considered and the action of the Aldermen non concurred in. He said that when Mr. Smith lost his life he was doing his official duty as a deputized policeman.

Mr. Burke said that the committee after careful examination of the matter saw no reason for action in this case. No proof had been given that Mr. Smith had even been deputized to act for the city; the family had the deep sympathy of the committee, but this was one of those unfortunate occurrences which sometimes happened and Mr. Smith was the unfortunate victim.

Mr. Birrell said Mr. Smith had been deputized by Officer Nicholson and asked Mr. Burke if the committee had examined Officer Nicholson on the subject.

Mr. Burke replied that Mr. Nicholson had been before the committee.

Mr. Birrell then proceeded to question Mr. Burke as to what took place in committee when he was interrupted by the Chair, who stated that what took place in committee was not to be discussed in open Council. Mr. Birrell said he understood.

Councilman Burke defended the report of the committee. He said Mr. Smith was not deputized to assist the police when he was killed, and lost his life as any other bystander might have. Mr. Burke said he deplored the unfortunate occurrence, and had the utmost sympathy for the family of the dead man.

Mr. Evans was willing to do all he could to assist the family of the late Mr. Smith, but he did not see how the Mayor could approve the resolution, in face of the constitution, even if Council passed it.

Mr. Birrell moved to non-concur in the action of the Aldermen and said that it was evident to him that council was shirking responsibility for fear of a subsequent claim upon the city for Mr. Smith's death, but he could assure council there would be no claim.

Mr. Birrell's motion was lost.

The question then came up on a motion to concur and was carried.

Mr. Birrell asked for a recorded vote.

Mr. Uhler said the matter had been settled and he saw no reason for a recorded vote. Some people wanted to put others' names in the newspapers on various subjects which was entirely unnecessary; he cared nothing for it, however, so far as he personally was concerned.

The chair ruled that under existing rules a member had the right to call for the ayes and nays.

The roll call was then taken and the report of the finance committee was adopted, ayes 8 nays 3, two not voting, as will be seen by the official proceedings.

A communication from the Clerk of the City School Board informed Council that four vacancies existed in that board caused by the expiration of the terms of Messrs Yates, Ramsay, Carne and Smoot, and the communication was laid over.

Council concurred in all the business sent in by the Board of Aldermen, as recorded in their proceedings, and the meeting adjourned about 8.40 o'clock.

A resolution instructing the Committee on Public Property to remove houses on the lot belonging to the city, northwest corner of Pitt and Princess streets, was referred to the Joint Committee on Streets, Public Property and General Laws.

The following was referred to the Committee on Streets:

A resolution appropriating $1,200 to lay gutters and make broken stone roadway on Commerce street, from Prince street to Duke street.

Also a resolution appropriating $275 to resurface Patrick street from Princess to Oronoco street with brown stone.

A report of the Finance Committee reporting adversely on the resolution appropriating $50 for the relief of the family of Charles T. Smith was received from the Board of Aldermen. A motion by Mr. Birrell to non-concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen was lost—ayes 3, noes 7. Upon motion the action of the Board of Aldermen was concurred in. Mr. Birrell called for a recorded vote which resulted as follows:—ayes, Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Rishell, Sauder, Harrison, Uhler, Evans and Mr. President (8).—noes, Messrs. Birrell, Marshall, pinks (3). Messrs Straus and Williams were excused from voting.

The following were received from the Board of Aldermen and their action concurred in:

A resolution appropriating $90 for the Municipal Journal and Engineer.

Also an adverse report of the Finance Committee on the resolution appropriating $500 as a contingent fund for the police department.

Also a petition from citizens for a gas lamp at the northeast corner of St. Asaph and Duke streets.

The board then adjourned.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Dr. Elwin Schneider, of this city, has successfully passed the examination before the medical board of the District of Columbia and has opened his office in Washington where his many friends wish him unbounded success.

Military Fund.

Adjutant General Anderson yesterday made public the apportionment of the State military fund, showing the amount received by each command. He says: "In accordance with orders of the military board, of date of October 17, 1906, the funds for the year October 1, 1906, to October 1, 1907, are partially appropriated, as follows: To each headquarters, amounts named, and for each officer and enlisted man of companies and batteries, present at annual inspection, $4 50." According to this apportionment Company G (Alexandria Light Infantry) with 2 officers and 35 men, or 37 men, at $4.50 per man, will receive $166.50.

Will Probably Hang.

John Wright, the negro sentenced to be hanged December 14 for assault upon Miss Mabel Risley, now Mrs. Forrest Gooding, of Washington, will doubtless be executed on that day, as Mr. J. E. Clements, his counsel, has taken no steps to secure a new trial for his client. The period in which a motion for a rehearing could be heard has, however, not yet expired. The report that the contract for constructing the scaffold on which Wright will die has been awarded is incorrect. The gibbet last used at Manassas has been secured and it will be used in case of the execution of Wright.

Collapse of a Tank.

The tank containing molten glass at the Alexandria Glass Works collapsed about 6:30 o'clock this morning, and for a time it was feared that the building would be set on fire and consumed. The steam whistle at the works sounded a distress call and the fire department was soon on the scene where the apparatus remained for some time and prevented what might have resulted in a serious conflagration. The loss is slight, and operations will be resumed in a few days.

Property Sales.

The Alexandria Perpetual Building Fund Association has sold to Wallace C. Davis the house and lot No. 228 south Pitt street for $4,100.

Dr. G. T. Klipstein has sold to Miss Rebecca T. Klipstein a house and lot on the north side of Prince street between Columbus and Alfred.

Mrs. Lucy A. Stribling has sold to Mrs. Margarette Nalls lots 5 and 6, block 1, in Wheat & Suter's subdivision.

Accused Dismissed.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of Amos Robinson, colored, who had been arrested by Officer Knight at the instance of Wm. Johnson, colored, who alleged that Robinson was guilty of disorderly conduct and assault. The evidence showed that the case was one of a war of words, and Justice Caton dismissed the accused.

Mr. Gould is spending several days in the capital city. The Niagara IV has a speed of twenty knots, and is much larger than the pleasure boats that usually come to Washington.

Steam Yacht Libelled.

A libel in the sum of $79.67 was yesterday placed on file in the District Court in Washington by W. S. Moore's sons of this city, against the steam yacht India, John F. Costello, master, alleged to be due the former as unpaid balance for labor and material furnished for the repair of the yacht.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The fall and winter term of the Court of Appeals in Richmond yesterday began with all the judges on the bench. There were the usual opening ceremonies, attended by a number of representative lawyers.

The first case to be called was the celebrated liquor law violations in Warren county, in which a man, Fletcher, and a man, Rose, were given the maximums for selling whisky. The fine of Fletcher aggregated $3,300, and that of Rose, $2,160. Richard E. Byrd is counsel in both cases and they were argued together.

The following is the summary of the business of the court for yesterday.

Fletcher vs. Commonwealth and Rose vs. Commonwealth, argued by R. E. Byrd for the plaintiffs, and the attorney-general for the Commonwealth, and submitted.

Dickerson vs. Commonwealth, dismissed for failure to print.

Bennett vs. Commonwealth, submitted on briefs.

Hatcher & Shaw vs. Commonwealth and George Jones vs. Commonwealth, argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called:

Board of Supervisors of Elizabeth City county vs Commonwealth on the corporation commission docket, and Thompson et al. vs. Camper, Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Denny's administrator and same vs. Edward's administrator, Williamson vs. Read and J. A. Seward & Company vs. Miller & Higdon, being Nos. 1 to 6 on the privileged docket.

Until further notice the court will convene at 10 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 1:30 p. m.

Virginia Baptists.

The Baptist General Association, which convened in Richmond last night, is one of the most largely attended in the history of the church in Virginia. There are no questions of church policy to be settled.

The Baptist young people continued their session yesterday afternoon and held their closing session.

The entire session of the parent body yesterday evening was taken up with the annual sermon by Dr. Calvin C. Blackwell, of Norfolk, and the election of officers for the year.

The following were elected:

William Ellyson, of Richmond, president; J. P. Saul, of Salem; W. L. Jefferson, of Culpeper; ex-Gov. A. J. Montague, of Richmond, and Prof. J. T. Henderson, of Bristol, vice presidents; Hugh C. Smith of Emporia, secretary.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, by the Baptista Young People: President, Professor W. A. Harris; Vice-President, George Braxton Taylor, D. D.; Secretary, J. Aubrey Saunders; Treasurer, Percy S. Abbott. These officers were authorized to name the executive committee.

A CARD OF THANKS.

The managers of the Alexandria Glass Works take this method of expressing their thanks to the members of the Alexandria fire department for their quick response at an early hour this morning and preventing what might have resulted in a serious conflagration by the accident at the works.

SOUTHERN IMMIGRATION.

The Southern Immigration and Educational Conference at Nashville yesterday effected a permanent organization to be known hereafter as the Southern Immigration and Industrial Association, and elected the following officers: President, Gov. D. C. Heyward, Columbia, S. C.; secretary-treasurer, J. R. McMullen, Gadsden, Ala. The next annual convention will be held in Birmingham, Ala., the second Tuesday in November.

A letter was read from John Sharp Williams in which he expressed the belief that the solution of the race question might be found in a preconcerted effort to bring white people of the right sort into the South as servants, tenants and farmers. He advocated the formation of a land company with a capital of at least $1,000,000 to buy lands throughout the cotton states and sell it on time to desirable immigrants. He recommended a mounted rural police and said the negro must work or leave.

The report of the good roads committee favored the adoption of the Latimer-Brownlow bill, now pending in Congress, asking for national aid in the construction of good roads, and that the states use every effort to improve their highways.

The report of the committee on education was submitted and adopted. It recommended the adoption in southern schools of Louisiana system of hygienic instruction; hearty co-operation by the farmers with state experiment farms; the founding of trade schools, and that the governors of all southern states call the attention of their people to the great need of technical education for the whole youth of the South.

The report of the committee on immigration recommended that the several southern states establish departments of immigration. The report urges the federal government "to provide liberally for the reception of immigrants at the South Atlantic and Gulf ports, and thus encourage the establishment of steamship lines for the direct importation of immigrants, thereby relieving the crowded condition of Ellis Island and the congested eastern cities." The report was adopted.

Sensational Shooting Affray.

News of a sensational shooting affray comes from Mount Airy, N. C., in which the principals are well-known young society people. As a result, Miss Bertha Ashby, a pretty and popular young society woman of the town, lies at the point of death. Graham Trotter, a young society man of Mount Airy, and teller of the First National Bank, and Arthur Brim, his companion, are in jail.

Miss Ashby was driving with William Turner, of Mount Airy, and they were returning to Miss Ashby's home, when an effort was made to hold up their team and a fusillade of shots followed. The horse became frightened, and as they were flying from the scene Miss Ashby was shot twice. Turner succeeded in checking the horses and reached the Ashby home with the girl. Young Trotter fled to Greensboro, but was arrested while on the train and brought back to Mount Airy.

Trotter stated that the shooting of Miss Ashby was a mistake and said: "The parties who were implicated in the hold-up were looking for someone else and mistook Miss Ashby and her escort for their victims."

Train Collides with Wagon.

One man was killed and three others probably fatally injured at 5:30 yesterday evening, when a fast east-bound passenger train on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad ran into a wagon heavily loaded with logs, at a grade crossing at Edensburg, Pa., six miles east of Newcastle. The train was running at a high rate of speed from Youngstown, Ohio, to Pittsburg, Pa. As it reached the grade crossing leading to the Edensburg highway bridge, it struck a wagon loaded with logs. The engine became uncoupled from the train and ran 150 feet along the ties and then crashed into a grist mill, practically wrecking the building.

Firemen Carnes remained at his post, and when the engine overturned he was crushed. The baggage car and three day coaches were thrown to the side of the tracks, but fortunately retained an upright position. The wagon became fastened on the crossing, and, through carelessness, it is said, no warning was given the train.

Strike Averted.

Following the statement by Grand Chief Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, that, in his opinion, there would be no strike of firemen on the Erie Railroad, the announcement has been made that the differences between the New York Central and the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroads and the firemen employed on them had been settled for a time at least.

This announcement was made at a joint conference held at the offices of the two railroads in the Grand Central Depot. At the conference it was decided that the new electric motors which are being installed on the two roads will for a period of six months be operated in the same manner, in regard to the time and wages, as the present steam locomotives. During that time the officials of the road will decide whether they will change the rate of wages or the mileage.

A dispatch from Butte, Mont., says a rich strike has been made in the big Anaconda copper mine. The largest body of copper ever found in the district has been discovered on the 400 foot level of No. high ore shaft.

Southern Methodists.

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in Virginia, began its session in Portsmouth today, Bishop Hendrix presiding. One of the pleasant features of the conference will be the presentation of a silver loving cup to Rev. Dr. Paul Whitehead, who will be elected again secretary of the body, a position he has held for 50 years. An important question to come before the conference is that of ministerial supply. Eight preachers have died during the year, several will declare themselves superannuated, and there is a scarcity of new men to take their places, consequently it looks as if the conference will be short of ministers to fill the small charges.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov 14.—The market showed decided strength all through the first hour with St Paul the principal feature of interest. There was presistent buying of this stock by standard oil interests. The advance from 176 to 182 was accompanied by reports of a coming stock issue and subscription rights. Hill stocks were strong. Practically everything made some gain in the first hours trading and the tone was more confident than it has been for many days.

The suit of Col. G. C. Rankin, receiver of the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin, Ohio, to recover on a note for $10,000 made by Herbert B. Newton, of Brookline, Mass., to accommodate Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, has been settled out of court by the payment of $4,100.

Cure For The Blues

ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained.

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her periods she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency, as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Zoroastrian Beliefs.

The Zoroastrian faith acknowledges Ormazd, Ahura Mazda, "Lord Wisdom," as the supreme god, with six archangels, Amesha Spenta, and a company of angels, Yazata, about him to rule and guide the world. The infernal host of fiends and archfiends who war against heaven and strive to destroy the future life of man is led by Anra Mainyu, the evil spirit. In discussing with these Zoroastrians the subject of the origin of evil I found that they look upon the supreme being, Ahura Mazda, as comprising within himself the two powers of good and evil—namely, Spenta Mainyu, the holy spirit, and Anra Mainyu, the evil spirit. This is similar to the monotheistic view held by the Parsis of India in opposition to the statement frequently made that Zoroastrianism is pure dualism. They believe also in the resurrection of the dead, which their faith has taught them since early times, and this doctrine is connected with the belief that there will come a saviour or messiah, called the Saoshyant.—A. V. Williams Jackson in Century.

Blind From Birth.

It would be of great interest to know how much Helen Keller, losing her sight at nineteen months, really retained of the sense of sight. With Laura Bridgman, a woman of much less intellect, there was evidently little or nothing left, even as a memory. With her taste and smell were very feeble, so that communication with the world was, indeed, through a narrow passage. Her sensitiveness to vibration was so fine that without any trace of the sense of hearing she was aware of the tolling of a bell. But her biographer, giving us in detail the record of the slow steps of her education, tells us little of what idea she was able to form of things. It is Schopenhauer who gives one hint of what we all want to know of the born blind. He says that a man blind from birth to whom sight was given by an operation put his hand to his eye to grasp there and not in their place the things he saw.—London Chronicle.

The Crumpet Story.

Oliver Wendell Holmes professed to have a profound respect for the Dutch, possibly on account of what he used to call "the European aborigines of America" being Dutch. He gave an aspect of slyness to his respect which inspired the idea that it was not untempered by humor, but he maintained that the Dutch, in spite of their solidity, had a great deal of humor themselves. "For instance," he would say, "the crumpet story has a Dutch origin." "What is the crumpet story?" people would ask. And he would tell them that it had many variants, but the one with which he was familiar was about a man who was going to be hanged and was asked whether he had any last request to make and said he would like to have a dozen hot crumpets, very buttery, because he had never dared to eat more than one before.

Mechanism of the Human Body.

The human body is an epitome in nature of all mechanics, all hydraulics, all architecture, all machinery of every kind. There are more than 310 mechanical movements known to mechanics today, and all of these are but modifications of those found in the human body. Here are found all the bars, levers, joints, pulleys, pumps, pipes, wheels and axles, ball and socket movements, beams, girders, trusses, buffers, arches, columns, cables and supports known to science. At every point man's best mechanical work can be shown to be but adaptations of processes of the human body, a revelation of first principles used in nature.

The Trunkfish.

The trunkfish is one of the peculiar inhabitants of the ocean. It is called the trunkfish because its back is completely covered with bony plates of a regular shape, forming a complete coat of mail. It is protected so completely that it can move only its tail, mouth and a small part of its gills, which pass through the armor. It is quite a small fish and is found only in the warm waters of the southern tropical seas.

An Innocent Diversion.

"Poor woman!" sighed the prison visitor to the convicted murderess. "Does not the thought of your impending doom cause your mind to revert to the days of your innocent childhood? Do you not wish you could be playing again as you did then"—

"Why, yes," replied the poor woman. "I would like to skip the rope."—Philadelphia Press.
